Jessee Skittrall is a master educator, salon owner and an American Board Certified Haircolorist. His skills in conveying information to others is second to none. He approaches teaching in a matter of fact, no nonsense manner. His explanation for his method of teaching is, "I like to teach in the same manner I would like to be taught".

"He captivates the beginner as well as the experienced haircolorist. Everyone can learn from Jessee. You can view his work and techniques and teaching style on YouTube. He has been in the profession for over 20 years and is anxious to share his knowledge with you. You will love his teaching style".
